AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

AND FOR THE RELIEF OF PATIENTS IN ADVANCED STAGES OF CONSUMPTION.

Many years of trial, unsurpassed of imparting the public confidence in this medicine, has won for it an appreciation and notoriety by far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the unmistakable benefit rendered unto thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many worthless remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained credit by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgot en.

While it is a fraud upon the public to pretend that any one medicine will infallibly cure—still there is abundant proof that the Cherry Pectoral does not only a general thing, but almost invariably, cure the maladies for which it is employed.

As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine, has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American peasant to the palaces of European Kings. Throughout this entire country, in every State, city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, Cherry Pectoral is known as the best remedy extant for diseases of the Throat and Lungs—and in many foreign countries it is becoming extensively used by their most intelligent citizens. In Great Britain, France and Germany, where the medical sciences have reached their highest perfection, Cherry Pectoral is introduced, and constant use in the Arctic Hospitals Alms Houses Public Institutions, and in domestic practice, as the surest remedy their attendant Physicians can employ for the more dangerous forms of labors. Also in milder cases, and for children it is safe, pleasant and effectual in one dose, some of the most flattering testimonials we receive have been from parents who have found it efficacious in cases particularly incidental to childhood.

The Cherry Pectoral is manufactured by a practical Chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with unvariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, consequently can be relied on as genuine without adulteration.

We have endeavored here to furnish the community with a medicine of such intrinsic superiority and worth as should commend itself to their confidence—a remedy at once safe, speedy and effectual, which this has by repeated and countless trials proved itself to be, and trust by great care in preparing it with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength to afford Physicians a new agent on which they can rely for the best results, and be furnished with a remedy that will do for them all it medicine can do

Volcano Quartz Mining Company,

Volcanoville, El Dorado Co.,

CALIFORNIA.

BOOKS for subscription to $75 00 of the stock of this company are now open at the office of the Company 73 BROADWAY, New York.

The unquestionably rich ground of this company has induced many of those who are engaged in it to invest capital in quartz mining in California, not surpassed, if indeed, equaled by those of any other company in that State.

The extraordinary richness of our quartz has been attested by thousands at the late Fair of the American Institute and the extent of our claims, together with the peculiarly favorable location for economical working upon a large scale, will ensure to a small amount of stock returns upon the investment.

It is well understood by practical men that, with machinery to work the present rock of quartz, paying two cents per lb. large returns will be realized upon each day's work. It is the intention of the company to obtain machinery sufficient to work fifty tons per day, and to work all the most common rock in a manner, by which they feel confident of being able from their rock which will yield from two cents to twenty dollars to the lb to make returns to their shareholders which will not only satisfy, but surprise them.

It will be seen by reading the pamphlet containing the charter the laws of California, and the details of our practical operations, that our estimates are based upon two cents per lb and the expense of working the rock at per ton the present high prices for labor, which are well known to all who call upon the matter, that with the cost of labor when the reduced rate income will be materially enhanced.

If we work 10 tons per day, and get two cents per lb it will yield $400 while three fourths of one cent per lb will give a proportionate increase of receipts, the expenses of working the mill and mine will be increased a dollar and will be less than $375 a day.

Subscriptions can be made by mail enclosing ten per cent on the amount of the balance twenty per cent to be paid on the 20th of November and twenty per cent on the 20th day of December next, when certificates of stock will be issued.

Pamphlets containing the statutes of California in relation to corporations, the rules and regulations of our Company, the charter and by-laws of the company together with much other interesting and useful matter, including a map of a portion of the northern mining region may be had gratis at the office of the Company, No 73 Broadway or by mail on application (postage paid).

THE WORLD'S RACONTEUR, OR THE BEST THOUGHTS OF THE BEST AUTHORS. By Everard Berkeley. In Prose and Poetry, with an Introduction by Wm. B Sprague, D. D. New York: M. W Dodd, 1853.

It has been said that it is only thoughts that are worth preserving. In this work are treasured a multitude of thoughts possessed of that intellectual vitality which entitle them to at least an earthly immortality. The best thoughts of the best authors are here, well preserved and ready for use, not merely as intellectual commonplaces always very handy in one's pocket, but as food for mental aliment, and as suggestion for new productions. We have here a great range, embracing almost every leading subject, illustrated and warmed by some bright conception, some exquisite sentiment, some richly and thrilling saying of a noble mind in its best mood.

This work may be obtained at E. F. Duren's Bookstore, near the Post Office.

HOME COOKERY A collection of Tried Receipts both foreign and domestic. By Mrs. J. Chadwick. Boston: Crosby, Nichols & Co., 1853.

We have received from George R. Smith a volume of 159 pages, with the above title. Such a book must be of great service to those beginning in the great work of house-keeping, as the mysteries of making all sorts of goodies are here laid down with quantities and time We are not sure about it, but in glancing over the pages of this book, it seems to us that the key note is pitched rather high for the health of the stomach and the purse.

Those husbands who can only be kept quiet by having something good to put in the mouth should call into Smith's and buy this work for their wives.

THE HORTICULTURIST, December, 1852.

We have received this welcome publication It closes the seventh volume, and with it we have the Farewell Address of the publisher, Luther Tucker, Esq., who was associated with the late and now lamented A. J. Downing, Esq

The Horticulturist will hereafter be published by Mr. James Vick, Jr., and edited by P Barry, Esq., a gentleman of acknowledged taste and thorough practical knowledge of the arts to which it is devoted. Mr. Tucker endorses very fully both the new publisher and editor, and anticipates its long continued usefulness in the great mission upon which it started, embracing the principles of a beautiful home, as an antidote to the restless raving tendency of the times —the love of nature instead of the ambition of display—the culture of the mind and the soul instead of the pernious haste to be rich

Col. Henry Little is the Bangor agent for this work

☞ We are indebted to Hon. Luther Severance, U. S. Commissioner to the Sandwich Islands, for a copy of an admirable address delivered by him before the Hawaiian Total Abstinence Society on The Effects of Alcohol. We are glad to find Maine men advocating temperance among distant people, and in places far remote as well as near

First Visit to the House of Representatives.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

And we are left or shall be left, alone
We will from this day forward we shall know
That in ourselves our safety must be sought.

"In the immense crowd which throngs the avenues to power in the United States, I found very few men who displayed any of that manly candor, and that masculine independence of opinion which frequently distinguished the Americans in former times, and which constitute the leading feature in distinguished characters wheresoever they may be found," M De Tocqueville.

The idea is too prevalent in society that a man cannot become distinguished aside from political position, an idea, so strong, among the people, that the most unimportant office under government, is sought with the most intense interest, and when conferred upon the applicant is accepted with the most devout thanks, and a sickening betrayal of human weakness

So numerous has become the army of accommodating trimmers and tricksters who consider it as damnable to have political principle as was poverty in the times of Charles the Second of England, when "the deepest hell was an empty purse, that I could almost wish for a second Cromwell to spring up, and overthrowing the present form of government, take the supreme power into his own hands, at any rate I may say, since seeing the programme of Col Benton, I stand ready to hail him as the hero who will undertake the work of reform—reform is a laborious and too often an inglorious task—it is innovation—a breaking in upon a peaceful and harmonious state of things—very disagreeable to a man whose passions are of equal eye, and in whose calm contemplation all human wrong is forgot.

"The cheapness of men is every day a tragedy The mighty Julius said "With money I'll get men, and with men I'll get money"—but Col. Benton is not to be bought. It is rare, very rare that the mantle of a Great Man falls upon an immediate successor Has the mantle of Calhoun, Clay, and Webster, fallen upon Col Benton, be it so or be it not so, if this Republic, which is sfine and beautiful thing, should by any unfortunate circumstance happen to get stuck in the sand like Robinson Crusoe's boat, who, if not Col Benton, can or will pull it out?

We want somewhat impatiently to see Col. Benton, not more for the reform which he proposes than from the desire to see a man different from all other men

The Rev Sidney Smith, in speaking of a certain member of Parliament, said he reminded him of a fly in amber, and hence the question always came up—"How in the d—l did he get there?" In looking around upon the members of Congress one involuntarily asks himself —"How in the d—l did Mr So and So get here?"

Shame on men, who gain political position through no other means than their ability of throwing up their hats and crying vivats to the dominant party, or flinging mud upon it from the gutter.

Political distinction is not the chief good of existence—political position is not the highest exponent of power, nor does it always merit or even obtain our esteem—that is power, which can wield and assimilate all things to one's self—that is power, which John Foster calls physopathy, that has a safe, an agency in all things."

There was a man, who took his seat in the Senate of the United States by the high- est of all human authority—"born to rule"

"For the safety of the State, it is not of necessary importance, what motives induce men to administer public affairs rightly, provided only that public affairs be rightly administered. For moral strength or freedom, from the selfish purposes, is the virtue of a State."

The world not complain of the Bitterest of party political men, But not American patriots here in their homes! Let them fill their houses and their churches with pleasures, tastes and virtues of the purest and the good, who have gone before on their shining upon them things may be accomplished to complete their virtues.

Washington, (D. C.,) Dec. 8, 1852.

Shaking Hands.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier.

As the size and quality of the brain indicate the amount and kind of character, so the actions of persons bespeak their feelings and sentiments, and in nothing is this more evident and striking than in the shake of the hand—Who has not observed on meeting an old acquaintance the whole-souled and genuine glow of friendship in the cordial grasp of the hand. It speaks more than could be expressed by words in volumes. So in meeting one who has no love or sympathy for you He may pass you time after time with merely a nod, or if he should extend his hand, he offers it in such a manner as to say you may shake it if you want to, and when you attempt to give the friendly grasp you may get only half their fingers, they too, have a cold inexpressive touch more resembling that of a dead person than one animated with life Such persons may make all the pretentions of friendship they can find words to express, but their actions speak louder than words All our actions are signs of character and they make their impressions on the minds of our associates, whether with or without our consent or knowledge

The Census Report of Mr KENNEDY, has a very interesting chapter on Indian Corn the encouragement afforded by the market opened under Mr PEEL's policy in England, in 1845, appears to have stimulated the increased production of this grain far beyond the real demand for Europe growing out of this policy This demand, indeed, with the single exception of the famine years of 1846—7, when six ten million bushels were exported, amounts to a very small fraction, scarcely over one half of one per cent. of the total product of the country In other words, we consumed at home, in 1850—51 nearly two hundred bushels Indian Corn, against a single bushel sent abroad, the figures being three millions in export to five hundred and ninety-two millions in production. The increase of production since the Sixth Census, in 1840, has been enormous—five hundred and ninety two millions against three hundred and seventy seven millions in 1840 The extremely small proportion of this large aggregate for which the country finds a market abroad, will attract attention, and the same remark applies though in a less striking degree, to the report on Wheat, which last year realized only two and a half million bushels, against an annual production in 1850 of nine hunred and a half millions bushels The Superintendent of the Census Bureau refers to the transposition of the Corn growing States since 1840 Then, Tennessee was the first in the production of this grain Now, she is rated fourth, because of the greatly increased attention directed to Corn for export in the States contiguous to the Ohio river and its tributaries The State of Ohio stands first, Kentucky second, Illinois third, and Tennessee, as just stated fourth Neither of these States, however, we may remark, afford more productive spots for Corn than Missouri, Arkansas, and Indiana, and we doubt whether they export so much The black alluvial lands of New Madrid County, Missouri on the west bank of the Mississippi river, and in the Counties of Arkansas below New Madrid, and above 35° north latitude, produce the largest yield per acre of any Corn lands within our knowledge, and the grain is cultivated with the least labor and marketed at New Orleans at the earliest months of the business season The planters in this favored section of Arkansas who divide their crops between Cotton and Corn, find, from the productiveness and facility of growing the latter, about the same profit in it at 50 or 55 cents the bushel of 62 pounds at New Orleans as Cotton at 8 cents the pound The relative profit, however, diminishes as Cotton goes above this figure The valley of the Wabash, in Indiana, is also a rich Corn growing region, but the grain matures later, and the expenses to market are nearly or quite double those of the New Madrid country Of the country supplying the Northern Atlantic markets the most productive lands are found in North Carolina, near Albermarle Sound and Currituck Inlet, and in the valley of the Rappahannock, in Virginia The near States of Pennsylvania New Jersey and Maryland, it is stated in the Report before us, have increased their production 80 per cent within the ten years but the yield per acre on their best lands bears no favorable comparison with the sections just referred to

Crystal Palace----Circular to

AMERICAN PRODUCERS.—ASSOCIATION FOR THE EXHIBITION OF ALL NATIONS. OFFICE, No 53 Broadway. New York, Dec. 11, 1852.

I ad now you in behalf of the Association for the Exhibition of the Industry of all Nations, to invite your co-operation in the general objects of the enterprize

The building intended for the purposes of the Exhibition, construc ed entirely of iron and glass, will be of the largest dimensions ever yet erected for the purpose, covering on the ground floor, two and a half acres and containing within its galleries, the whole space of four acres. The main vestibules are advanced, and will be completed on the 21st October The main part of the main work will be completed Dec. next, the exercises are to be celebrated from the 15th to the 30th October of the 1st of December We have all the assurance of the Crystal Palace Company, to assure you, as we have already stated to the public, that the Exhibition will certainly be opened on the 2d of May, 1853

You are thus offered an unequalled opportunity of exhibiting to the vast population of this country each of your productions as you may choose us, free of all charge, of every kind whatever, from the time that they are delivered into our custody until withdrawn

The Association moreover announced that their objects are limited exclusively to exhibition They have no interest whatever, direct or indirect in the final disposition to be made of any article that may be displayed.

You are, no doubt, aware that we have received all the assistance from the public authorities that we have desired The City has given us the lease of Reservoir square, the State has granted us a charter, and the Federal authorities have engaged to let the building shall be under a Bonded of Warehouse for the purpose of receiving foreign articles without paying duty so long as they remain in it.

We have the strongest assurances of support from the representatives, in this country, of the principal Foreign Powers, and we are receiving daily confirmation of the general interest that the subject is exciting among the manufacturers of Europe. "A large number of articles of high value are already secured, and we have no doubt whatever that we shall have a very extensive representation of all the branches of foreign industry

The measures which we have adopted will, thus, secure two great objects we have desired to obtain, viz the erection of a building which will be a great architectural ornament to our City, and the exhibition in that building, of the products of the industry of the Old World; still, we shall fall far short of our mark if we do not equally succeed in obtaining the fullest and most extensive co-operation of American industry Our Exhibition would be exceedingly defective if would be very inferior, both in interest and in utility, to what we mean to make it—if the great resources of the people of our own country were not fully displayed in it.

We believe it to be unnecessary to urge upon you the arguments on this subject, which we are sure will present themselves to the mind of every intelligent American producer. Your position in the world, of American Industry, your born interest and what is due to its enterprise devised and pursued to be carried out with no narrow views, but on a large scale of public usefulness—all entitle us to enter, with the fullest confidence that you will send us some of the choicest specimens of your skill, and that you will urge your friends to do the same

We do not doubt that such will be the result when the subject is brought fairly and fully before you, and our only reason for addressing you this particularly is that the time may not be overlooked in the press of daily business and that you may give the subject attention in time to do justice to it.

Wishing you, in connection with your General Circular, and as a form of Application for Space, to which we beg your attention, (Exhibitors are requested to send their communications, not to the Secretary, but to the Executive Committee, as he has at the present time no other duties to perform than those connected with the Exhibition) success in your undertaking

Sore Feet of 10 years' standing cured by H G Farrell's Arabian Liniment.

Mr H. G Farrell—Dear Sir I had been afflicted with the "Sore Feet" for the last ten years, and could never get relief except by bleeding but by the use of H G Farrell's Arabian Liniment, applied over the temples about three or four times a day, it was entirely rem ved and I have felt nothing of it since. I went to the stable one night to apply it to another sore leg, and being very much heated and left all night my leg crashing and bruising them so badly that they turned black as my hat, rendering me powerless. I applied your Liniment, and was well enough in a few days to go about again as usual I also crushed my finger in a shocking manner by having a door fall upon it, your Liniment soon healed it up, though

JOHN R. McGEE

La Salle president Peoria co Ill., Feb 6 1849

[Esq Barker, of New Canton, Ill., says]

Mr H G Farrell—Arabian Liniment has cured some bad cases here, which every other remedy had failed in one was a child swelling on 1 contracted cords in the leg of a boy twelve years old The leg had withered away, and was so contracted that he had no use of it. Three doctors had tried their skill upon it in vain and had pronounced nothing to the grave, when the boy's father was induced to try H G Farrell's Arabian Liniment. Before the first bottle was used up the cords in Mr B's shrunk, and the first words he said were, "Mr Barker I want all that Liniment you have in the store the one bottle I got, and my boy is as good as all that had ever been done for me. That boy is now well and hearty and has true use of his legs. It is good for sprains, bruises, cuts, burns, and swellings.

Self Acquired Fame!

DR JOHNSON'S

AMERICAN ANODYNE LINIMENT.

For Internal and External Use.

THIS wonderful Medicine, notwithstanding it has never had the advantage of newspaper notoriety, has by merit acquired a higher and more extended popularity than any other similar compound in the world. It is entirely of vegetable extract perfectly safe to be administered even to the most delicate child, and alike astonishing and salutary in its effects upon man or beast. To those unacquainted with this invaluable medicine we say, give it a fair trial, and we promise you a radical cure for Coughs Colds Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Spitting of Blood, and all lung Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, and Dysentery to all of which cases it should be used internally. The effects of its external application in cases of Rheumatism, Spinal Diseases Sprains Chapped Hands, Bruises, Burns, and all descriptions of wounds are magical. Persons troubled with Cramp in the Stomach, Side, or Bowels, Sore Throat Piles, &c, by a combined internal and external application of this Anodyne, cannot fail of certain and speedy cure. The proprietor can produce volumes of testimonials in its favor, but prefers to let it carry its own recommendations as it has done for forty years past. We ask no man to use it after an unsatisfactory trial. In its composition it unites several of the most penetrating and healing specifics known to the materia medica—the discovery of this article was the result and successful practice of medicine for more than twenty years.

The above is to certify that having been troubled for a number of years with a distressing cough, and bleeding at the lungs, and receiving no benefit from medical aid, in 1848 I was to all appearance in the last stage of consumption. My legs swelled so that I was unable to help myself. At that time your Liniment was providentially recommended to me and by the use of one or four bottles I was entirely cured, and have since been able to labor every day. I have also for the last twenty years been subject to severe attacks of bloody dysentery, and never found any permanent relief until I took your Liniment, since which I have had no return of the complaint. I sincerely say I think your Anodyne Liniment was the means of saving my life. JOHN T. ATKINS

Brewer, Sept. 29, 1852.

DR JOHNSON: Dear Sir—In consequence of having a fever sore on my leg, it became entirely stiff at the knee, and it was decided by the best surgeons that my leg must be amputated, but fortunately I heard of your Anodyne Liniment, and by using three bottles, my leg was limbered and strengthened, and for a number of years I have been able to use it about as well as the other. I consider myself indebted for the use of my leg, and consequently my life, to the kind providence of God, in placing it in the power of others who may need help in this way, to try it, and no doubt you will be cured.

Gentlemen and Ladies, Youths and Infants, will find Supports of Elastic and Inelastic Webbing, Trusses, Hulls, Chapin's Spinal Supporters, Pessaries, &c, &c

Ladies wanted to call on Mrs Clapp at the Store of Foster, at the above place.

The following certificate from Dr Joel Wentworth of Boston, was given to me many years ago, and has stood the test of time, and is now as true as when first written.

Boston, January 1, 1841.

Having had occasion to observe the many persons afflicted with Hernia, Late's shield cases from the want of a skilful Instrument in fitting and adjusting Trusses to the peculiarities of their cases, I have taken pains to call my self to the inspection of Mr J F Eshell to supply the deficiency occasioned by accidents or Mr Death. After some months of observation I am well assured that Mr Eshell is well acquainted with the manufacture of these instruments, and is ingenious in accommodating them to the variety of cases which occur. I feel satisfied in recommending him to my professional brethren, and the public, as a person well fitted to supply their wants in regard to those important articles.

JOHN C WARREN, M D Boston

CERTIFICATE The above certificate is from the pleasant Stuart, Andover Theological Seminary.

The undersigned having been appointed by Mr J Frederick Eshell, of Boston to manufacture and fit Trusses for the afflicted, takes great pleasure in recommending him to the favorable notice of such persons as may be afflicted with that and similar complaints. Mr Eshell's success in the manufacture and application of the Instrument, giving ease and comfort to the wearer, is, so far as our experience goes, unsurpassed by any other manufacturer of the article.

The numerous testimonials which he has received, together with the personal attention of the eminent surgeon, Dr J C Warren, are sufficient guaranty for all who may favor Mr E that the instruments will give entire satisfaction, or the will satisfy a reasonable remuneration for the requisite compensation.
